IT'S SO IF IT'S IN THE LEDGER. WON BOTH GAMES.

The Maysvilles Came Very Near Shutting the Ironouts Out Yesterday.

The second game between Maysville and Ironouts was a complete walkover for the former. Had it not been for a very foolish play on the part of Nix in the last half of the ninth inning the visitors would have sustained a Waterloo.

Wellner twirled for Maysville and had the Ironouts at his mercy. During the five innings he pitched only one little, miserably little, hit was all the visitors could make off of him.

The locals put up a magnificent and errorless game during his stay in the box. Wellner used all the deception he had at command. He sent some of them over the rubber like chained lightning on a greased track, while others were so slow you could count the seams on the ball and read Spalding's trade-mark plainly. During Wellner's administration only one ball went outside the diamond, and that was Conner's single in the fifth.

Wadsworth, on account of Wellner's arm feeling sore, went in to finish the game. Henry had both speed and command, and the two hits the visitors got off his delivery were made after a chance to shut them out was offered.

Lauderbach pitched for Ironouts, and was an easy mark for the locals, especially Cox, who touched him up for four hits.

Rooney played great ball for the visitors at short. He had excellent chances, one of them being a sensational running catch, and accepted them all in clever style.

Wadsworth played third again for five innings and got everything that came in his territory.

Cox, with the exception of a dropped ball, which was almost an excusable error, played a great game at first.

Frank's throw to the plate from center in the eighth inning was the feature of the game.

The locals took all the starch out of the visitors by scoring five runs in the first. Frank hit to third, but McCarthy missed the throw. Frank pitched second. Rogers singled into right and took second on a bad throw in. Frank scoring. Cox sent a daisy cutter past short for a bag and Rogers took third and scored on a passed ball. Nix lifted one into right for a double and Cox scored. Wadsworth went out at first. Hill bunted and reached first on Laudersbach's low throw. Cake missed three loushots. Hill stole second. Davis hit a hot one past second for a base and Nix and Hill scored. Wellner singled into left for a corner. Davis was caught napping at third and run down. A single, two errors and a wild throw gave Maysville two more tallies in the second.

Maysville captured two runs in the fourth. Frank flew out to Conners; Rogers got a base on balls. Cox rapped a scorcher passed third for a bag. Nix singled into left for a base and the bases were loaded. Rogers scored on a passed ball. Wadsworth flew out to second and Cox beat the throw to the plate. Nix went out at first.

After one was out in the eighth the locals scored. Wellner hit to left and took two bases on Conner's error. Wellner scored. Nix reached first on Conner's error. Wadsworth flew out to short. Hill's hit forced Nix out at second. Hill puled second. Conner dropped Cake's skyrocket and Hill trotted home.

The visitors came in to take their last turn at the bat. Everybody thought it was a shoo-out for them. Rooney struck out. Wood worked a base on balls, then Conners took a base by being hit by a pitched ball. Cannon struck out. Conners the next batter up, had two strikes on him, when Nix threw to second to catch Conners. Frank caught the ball, but in throwing to the plate made a wild one and two Ironouts scored. This rattled Wadsworth completely. Conners hit to left for two bases and scored on McCarthy's double.

A BAD ACCIDENT.

Henry Smith, Jr., Loses One of His Fingers.

Henry Smith, Jr., who drives the dray for Ernie White, met with quite a severe accident this morning about 8 o'clock on Market street.

He was engaged in unloading a large paving stone, the kind they are putting down on Market street, together with several other workmen. One of the workmen had a crowbar under one and holding it up while Mr. Smith removed a block upon which the stone was resting on the dray.

In some unaccountable manner the bolt of the crowbar slipped, letting the weight of stone down upon the middle finger of Mr. Smith's right hand, mashing it so severely as to necessitate amputation at the first knuckle joint.

Mr. Smith was taken to Dr. Pangburn's office, where his injury was attended to.

The accident will keep him from work for several weeks.

Rev. R. Straus, the colored Baptist Minister of Maysville, is holding a protracted meeting at Manchester.

"Her hair always looks so perfectly lovely." Why? Because she uses Ayer's Hair Vigor. That's the secret of its luster.

Earl Belmont, the fine trotting stallion owned by Lester Witherspoon at Versailles, was struck by lightning and killed. He had recently declined $5,000 for him.

John Shugert of the Adam Forepaugh show came in yesterday morning to look after the advertising of the Opera house here and at Winchester for E. L. Kinne-man this season.

Reuben Arms West Virginia. The reunion at Ironton, O. on August 20th, 26th and 27th promises to be one of the most interesting ever held. The C. and O. Railway will make a rate of one fare for the round trip, and an immense turnout is expected.

BLACKLISTED.

Testimony in the Pullman Strike Investigation.

Prof. Bemis, of the Chicago University, Gives His Ideas.

He Believes in Giving Employer and Employee Fair Play—Also Favors the Licensing of Companies to Hire and Discharge Workers as Interesting Witness.

CHICAGO, Aug. 18.—The principal feature of Friday's session of the National Labor commission was the testimony of W. L. Bemis, associate professor of social economy at the University of Chicago. Rev. William H. Cardinal, who is a minister at Pullman, gave the result of his close investigation of the troubles in the town. The directors of the Pullman Co. were also put on the stand, besides a number of ex-employees of various railroads.

A great deal of testimony was offered tending to show the existence of a "blacklist," debarring men named in it, from working on any railroad. The plan was advocated by Prof. Bemis, that all troubles be settled by a state board of arbitration and that railroad employees be licensed—seemed to meet with general favor.

Leroy M. Goodwin, a director of the A. R. U., was the first to testify. Mr. Goodwin thought in a "commonwealth" the solution of all the troubles of labor. He meant by this, he said, a government by the people only. He claimed that the government as now conducted was one of corporations only.

He was succeeded by Prof. Bemis. A deep student of the labor question, Prof. Bemis was listened to with the closest attention. He did not believe in compulsory arbitration. He said the Massachusetts law, which provides for a state court of three men which shall arbitrate labor disputes. One of these shall be from the railroad, one from the labor, and the third to be chosen by these two.

Prof. Bemis stated that this board had been very successful in settling labor difficulties. The only times when it had failed were in cases where the side or the other had refused to arbitrate. In this event the board had the right to make an inquiry, publish the result broadcast, and lay the blame where it belonged. The board, he said, did not have the right, as Prof. Bemis thought it should have, of inquiring into the employer's profits.

"I think such a board would have the right to examine witnesses," said Prof. Bemis, "and to make a separate report on each side, telling the folk who is in the wrong. I believe that either employer or employee would dislike being held up to the public as in the wrong. This board, I think, can go now, I think. As to the railroads, I believe it is necessary to keep them running as they are public utilities. At the same time it is necessary to give both sides fair play. I think the time is coming when the expectation of government will be that it will be tried. But in view of the fact that this time is not likely to be in the near future, I suppose the commission would like to know what will be more quickly available."

"I favor Mr. Day's suggestion, made Thursday, that competent men be licensed. If they are not competent, their license could be forfeited. Employers could be reached by being forced by the laws to furnish their character if they broke the agreement. All matters of difference I would have, of course, first submitted to this state board of arbitration, which should be made up of three men, one from each side which party was in the wrong, or which should bear the penalty."

Rev. Wm. H. Cardinal was examined at great length as to Mr. Cardinal's cause of the strike was the unequal cutting of wages and dissatisfaction with the local management. He said further:

"There was a feeling on the part of the men that they could get no redress. Neither Mr. Pullman nor Mr. McKies was as much to be feared as the local management. However, I am free to make this statement: The Pullman Co. has been a strike at Pullman if George M. Pullman had been in closer touch with his employees and there never would have been a strike. The Pullman Co. has been reduced in proportion to the cut in wages. I also believe that in a community which was run on the system of paternalism, as this one was, the company should have shared the brunt of the hard times with its employees and not have cut wages so much."

Mr. Cardinal stated that he asked Mr. Debs to declare the boycott off, and the latter did so, but the railroad managers refused to accept his proposition.

"I don't believe," said Mr. Cardinal, in concluding his testimony, that it was the Pullman Co. that was to give the men a fair show."

Mr. Cardinal favored courts of arbitration and government ownership of railroads. He testified that rents were fifteen per cent. lower in Roseland, a neighboring suburb, than in Pullman, and that the Pullman Co. was exorbitant. He was allowed to acquire property at Pullman, not even churches. The rent of the parsonage was $100 a month, while the minister had ever got enough salary to occupy it.

Mr. Cardinal said he knew that such families were soon to be taken from the Pullman houses for not paying their rent. His book, which contains a detailed story of the troubles at Pullman, was filed as part of his evidence.

NARROW ESCAPE.

Of Premier Dupuy, of France—Plot Discovered to Take His Life.

PARIS, Aug. 18.—Le Journal says that the police have frustrated an anarchist plot to assassinate Premier Dupuy. The premier is in Vernet Les Bains, not far from the frontier. He is accompanied by three Paris detectives, as rumors of a plot against his life have been numerous recently. These detectives are supposed to have discovered the plot through the presence of militant anarchists in the neighborhood of the hotel. The anarchists, says the Journal, were warned of their danger the night before the police expected to arrest them.

Further details of the plot against Premier Dupuy's life have been ascertained, and they confirm, in most respects, the information published by Le Journal.

The main plot was hatched in Barcelona and Spanish and fugitive French anarchists.

The strike investigation.

CHICAGO, Aug. 18.—There was a dearth of witnesses at the third session of the National Labor commission on Friday morning. Telegrams have been sent to Grand Chief Arthur, of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers; Grand Chief Albert, of the firemen, and President Timmers, of the American Federation of Labor, to appear before the commission and testify. None of the railway managers have yet been asked to appear.

SHIP CANAL.

Some Suggestions as to Its Construction By River Men.

Some of Them Say It Should Enter at the Head of the Ohio.

The River Would Then Be Navigable the Entire Year If This Plan Were Adopted, It Would Be a Great Advantage to the People of the West.

CINCINNATI, Aug. 18.—The projected ship canal connecting the great lakes with the Ohio river has been the subject of much comment in this city. A number of surveys have been made, and one of the cities proposed to be benefited is Cincinnati. While no doubt is expressed that the advantages of a ship canal to the Ohio river would be very great, there seems to be a difference of opinion among those who have studied the subject as to whether the proposed canal should be built from Cincinnati north through Ohio, or whether it should be constructed from Pittsburgh, or some other point nearer the lake.

Following are views of prominent river men on the subject:

Capt. F. J. Ellison, local manager of the Pittsburgh Packet Co., said: "It should be built immediately, as it would fill a long-felt want and do more good for the people of the West than anything else. It would stop coal famines, traveling public than anything else. It would stop coal famines, traveling public than anything else. It would stop coal famines, traveling public than anything else."

The man who quit giving receipts for subscription long enough to write the following few lines has evidently been in Mayville recently. "Don't ask an editor to suppress an item of news. Some other paper will get it anyway. The next week something will happen to your neighbor and if he asks to have it suppressed, you will be the first man to jump on the editor for daring to say his soul was his own. Take your medicine when the item happens to fall your way, for really you have no more claim on the paper than has your neighbor. See!"

Announcement.
The Band and Orchestra with the Emma Warren Theater Co., which commences a week's engagement at Washington Opera-house next Monday, are said to be first class, especially the orchestra, consisting of eight first class musicians, which is well worth the small admission they charge. The press in the different Texas cities where this attraction has appeared are loud in their praise of her company. The following is taken from The Dallas News: "Miss Anna Warren is a thorough student of DeSarte. Therefore her gesticulation is a study of grace. She is possessed of a magnificent voice, which is capable of depicting the deepest emotion and the lightest of comedy. She makes a special feature of her costumes, and wears several gowns in "Queens" that are marvels of beauty. Miss Warren is an ornament to her profession."

Many who have noticed the beautifully lighted stores of Messrs. W. C. Miner, J. H. and J. C. Peor have wondered what new style electric lamp they were using. The fact is, however, that the light is made from plain every day gas with the Welch incandescent burner and it can be fitted to any gas fixture in five minutes. The Welch incandescent about half as much gas as the ordinary tip burner and gives nearly four times as much light and no flickering—absolutely a steady soft, white light that is grateful to the most sensitive eye. The success of Mr. Annie M. Beam, of McKeesport, Pennsylvania, in the treatment of diarrhoea in her children will undoubtedly be of interest to many mothers. She says: "I spent several weeks in Johns town, Pa., after the great flood, on account of my husband being employed there. We had several children with us, two of whom took the diarrhoea very badly. I got some of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy from Rev. Mr. Chapman. It cured both of them. I knew of several other cases where it was equally successful. I think it cannot be excelled and cheerfully recommend it." Twenty-five and 50 cent bottles for sale by Theo. C. Power, Druggist.

Mr. Thomas Batte, editor of the Graphic, Texarkana, Arkansas, has found what he believes to be the best remedy in existence for the flux. His experience is well worth remembering. He says: "Last summer I had a very severe attack of flux. I tried almost every known remedy, none giving relief. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was recommended to me. I purchased a bottle and received almost immediate relief. I continued to use the medicine and was entirely cured. I take pleasure in recommending this remedy to any person suffering with such a disorder, as in my opinion it is the best medicine in existence." Twenty-five and 50 cent bottles for sale by Theo. C. Power, Druggist.
